

2020 LCLD PATHFINDER PRESS RELEASE

Moore, Hill & Westmoreland, P.A. Names Haley J. VanFleteren as Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Pathfinder

PENSACOLA, FLORIDA, February _____, 2020 – The law firm of Moore, Hill & Westmoreland, P.A. has chosen Haley J. VanFleteren to be a member of the 2020 class of Pathfinders, participating in a program designed by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) to train high-performing, early-career attorneys in critical career development strategies including leadership and the building of professional networks.

“This is a great honor for Haley,” said Larry Hill, MHW’s co-founder and managing partner. “It is evidence that she has been identified as having the potential to assume a leadership role, not only in our organization, but in the profession.” She also represents the First Judicial Circuit on the Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division Board of Governors and is actively engaged in leadership positions in the Escambia-Santa Rosa Bar Association.

According to LCLD President Robert J. Grey, Jr., the LCLD Pathfinder Program offers participants “intensive in-person training, online experiential learning, and opportunities to network with peers and esteemed LCLD Fellows and Alumni in small group gatherings.”

“We believe it’s a program that can help catapult a person’s career forward.”

Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization of more than 320 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners who are personally committed to creating a truly diverse legal profession. The LCLD Pathfinder Program has trained nearly 700 early-career attorneys since 2015, catering to junior lawyers in law firms and corporate legal departments who have demonstrated potential to become future leaders in the legal profession. For information, visit www.lclldnet.org.
